Rookies. Freshman Manisha Kalaga, sophomore Morgan Harms and seniors Hannah Kopfle, Caitie Vanhauer and Caitie Gallagher, all in Beginning Band, perform "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" at the 2011 Pops Concert. Sunday's tickets were sold for $10 each, and Monday's show required the students to pay $1. All bands, ensembles and choirs had at least one song in the concert.

P-P-P-Party Everyday. The Ninth Grade Choir, Show Choir boys and Select Women's Choir rehearse the number "I Gotta Feelin'." This song and nine other numbers were cut from the Monday, Feb. 14 student performance because the block was not long enough. The show for family and friends on Sunday, Feb. 13 featured all of the songs.

It's Safe to Dance. The show choir performs "Safety Dance" at the Sunday show. Although this was one of the songs cut on Monday, the show choir did an impromptu performance in the east gym after the show for the students. Creighton Prep junior Mike Mai said, "All of our time spent practicing it needed to be shown, so our impromptu performance was exhilarating."

Single Ladies. Chamber Choir poses for its rendition of "Single Ladies with a Crush." The girls also performed "Song Bird" and "Hey Jude."

Stand By Me. Sophomore Kate Johnson with Creighton Prep boys Mike Mai, Jeffmin Lin, Alex Rogers, Nick Tvrdy and Emmett Burns sing "Stand By Me" a capella. "I'm always grateful for the chance to share my God-given talent with people. Performing is always exhilarating, but singing in front of Marian girls was even more so than usual. The response from everyone made me feel very loved," Johnson said.
