Senior Lovin'. Seniors Hannah Kopfle and Maddie LaHood share a laugh together on their senior retreat Jan. 15 - Jan. 16. The whole class was broken up into two groups, one going on the first weekend, the other going the following weekend. The second retreat took place on Jan. 21 - Jan. 22. The retreat consists of group bonding, remembering the past three and a half years at Marian and looking ahead to the future. "It was the best retreat I've been on. I felt like everyone was able to open up, which made it a wonderful bonding experience," LaHood said.

Mother-Daughter Love. Junior Taylor Wyatt and her mother, Mrs. Cathy Wyatt, sing "Because You Loved Me" by Céline Dion at this year's Lite Night on Sunday, Jan. 16. The theme for the mother-daughter night was "Eat, Pray, Love." The night included speakers for each section and a mother-daughter look-a-like contest, followed by comedian T. Marni Vos as the last act. For "Eat," Mrs. Jeanne Rice, mother of senior Dana Rice and freshman Jaime Rice, is the manager of the Methodist Center for Diabetes and Nutritional Health and spoke about women's health. For "Pray," Mrs. Shari Reynolds and her daughter, senior Emily Reynolds, spoke about how prayer has been prevalent in their lives. The Wyatts finished off with "Love," talking about their relationship and ending with their duet.

Decisions, Decisions. Senior Ozy Aloziem chooses her dessert at the Jan. 14 Marian Moms lunch. The Moms provide a salad or hot dog, breadstick, sauce, dessert and water or lemonade all for $3. They come every other Thursday of each month.

United in Our Imperfections. The freshman and sophomore classes reflect during a reconciliation service on the afternoon of Jan. 7. Juniors and seniors gathered in the morning while underclassmen had a study hall, and visa versa in the afternoon. This year, the Campus Ministry Faith Committee set up the gym with a powerpoint of inspiring quotes and reconciliation stations with priests from around the Omaha Archdiocese.

E for Excellent. Couples dance members spell out the "E" in "Prep" at their half time performance at a Creighton Prep basketball game on Jan. 11. Senior dance team members, along with select Prep seniors, started working on the choreography in December. "It was a lot harder than it looks working with boys, but it made practices a lot more interesting and fun. It was all worth it in the end," senior couples dance team member Lucy Grant said.
