

MARCH IN PHOTOS

Water Break. Freshmen Maddie Elliston and Gigi Grant take a break at the varsity soccer game on March 21. The team played against Bellevue East and won with a final score of 5-0. The next varsity game is at Papillion LaVista High School on Monday, April 4 at 4:30 p.m. The varsity soccer team is made up of 10 freshmen, three sophomores, five juniors and one senior.

A Walk in the Windy City. Select Women's Choir members sophomore Kate Johnson and juniors Taylor Wyatt and Colleen Fell take a stroll on March 19 in Geneva, Illinois, a small town outside Chicago. The choir participated in the Heritage Festival of Gold in Chicago and placed second in the competition. "The competition itself went really well. Other than that, we had a lot of fun, and we were super busy all weekend. We met a lot of new people, and we had an amazing encore performance conductor," Fell said.

Team Building. Freshmen Helen Burns and Michaela Stuart and sophomore Kinsey Brown participate in amoeba tag on Mission Day on March 18. The half-day also included a Core Value art project, a service talk and a one-woman show about the life of Dorothy Day. Mission Day focused on Marian's six core values: Empowerment, Community, Compassion, Marian Identity, Service, and Spirituality.

Photos by Brittany Hytrek
Maggie Rossiter
Abbey Furlow
Annie McClure

Gaga Ooo La La. Senior Amy Okell touches up her lightening bolt eye makeup for the Lady Gaga concert on March 17. Gaga performed at the Qwest Center in front of a sold out crowd. Many attendees dressed up in costumes and makeup. "I loved the concert. It was one of the best performances I have ever seen. Lady Gaga is absolutely insane. I wore a caution tape dress to the concert, too. It wasn't as revealing as when Lady Gaga wore it, but it was awesome. My mom and I literally spent two hours on it after school, before the concert. She stapled, and I turned. It was the best costume I have ever made," said Okell. Photo courtesy of Amy Okell.

Such Speechers. Sophomore Maria Corpuz, senior Kelsey Murphy and junior Abby Johnson, along with senior Emily Reynolds not pictured here, perform their Oral Interpretation of Drama (OID) at Speech Guest Night on March 21. Their piece, "The Most Massive Woman Wins" by Madeleine George, is about four women's perceptions of body image.