

2023-24 Journalism contest for Nebraska high school newspaper and yearbook students

Entries for the Nebraska JEA State Journalism Contest must be postmarked by Friday, Dec. 8, 2023.

READ THE DIRECTIONS AND FOLLOW THEM CAREFULLY. No more than TWO entries per category will be accepted from any school. Unless instructed otherwise, mount all entries on an 8 1/2 x 11 inch sheet with the student's name, high school, adviser's name, and category printed in the upper right corner.

All materials must be sent FIRST-CLASS or hand-delivered to:

2023-24 JEA State Journalism Contest
Attn: Marsha Kalkowski, MJE, State Director
Marian High School
7400 Military Avenue
Omaha, NE 68134

Entries from each category will be judged by professional journalists, college students in journalism programs, and veteran high school advisers from across the nation. Certificates will be awarded for entries judged Superior, Excellent and Honorable Mention and mailed to winning schools in late January. Entries will not be returned. Electronic entries will not be accepted in any category except for graphic illustration, photography and photo illustration (see details in contest descriptions).

Yearbook entries must be selected from work that will be published in the 2024 yearbook OR work published in the 2023 book that was not previously entered into any contest if the student is still enrolled in the program. Photocopies of paste-ups also will be accepted. Newspaper entries must have been published between August 2023 and the contest deadline. Newspaper entries should be clippings from the paper in which they were published or dated print outs from the student publication web site. Photography entries do not necessarily have to be published. DO NOT SEND THE WORK OF STUDENTS WHO HAVE GRADUATED OR WHO ARE NO LONGER STUDENTS IN YOUR SCHOOL. DO NOT SUBMIT ENTRIES THAT WERE PREVIOUSLY SUBMITTED TO THE NSAA STATE CONTEST FROM 2023.

Schools whose advisers are JEA members pay no fees for their students' entries. Schools whose advisers are not JEA members must pay a $1 entry fee for each entry. Both member and non-member schools are limited to two (2) entries per category. Checks should be made payable to Marsha Kalkowski/Nebraska JEA Director. Proceeds from the contest will be donated to the Student Press Law Center.

There are 21 traditional categories: Advertising, Column Writing, Editorial Cartooning, Editorial Writing, Review Writing, Newspaper Feature Writing, InfoGraphic Design, News Writing, Newspaper Sports Feature Writing, Newspaper Sports News Coverage, Newspaper Layout, Headline Writing & Design, Feature Photography, Action Photography, Photo Illustration, Yearbook Feature Writing, Yearbook Sports Writing, Yearbook Theme Copy Writing, Yearbook Layout, Yearbook Theme Development and InDepth Coverage. Five broadcast categories: News, Feature, Sports, PSA and Overall Program and one literary magazine category are also part of this contest. Brief descriptions for each are included.

Schools are limited to two entries per category (except in YB theme and Literary Magazine, which allow one entry per school). A school's two entries in an event may be from two different students or both from the same student. When one student has more than one entry in an event, the judge will choose the best from among that student's entries. A student cannot place more than once in an event.

All categories must be entries from individual students with the exception of Yearbook Theme, which is the work of the staff/school and InDepth Coverage, which can be the work of a team of no more than six students (although 1 certificate will be printed for the winning teams). The Broadcast entries can be teams of two. Please identify each team member in these categories. Broadcast Program and Literary Magazine entries are by staff or school name, not individuals.

If you have questions or comments about any aspect of the contest, do not hesitate to call (402-571-2618 ext. 1134 school) or email (mkalkowski@omahamarian.org).

This is a great opportunity for your students to earn some recognition for their work before the state NSAA contest in the spring. Good luck!
